DOMINIQUE GAUTHIER

A PASSION FOR REFINED TASTE AND EXCELLENCE

Understated, authentic and delicious are the words that guide Michelin-star Chef Dominique Gauthier and his teams to make your fine dining moment as unique as it is extraordinary.

Inspired by the greatest chefs, crowned with a Michelin star and an 18 out of 20 rating by Gault et Millau, at Le Chat-Botté Chef Dominique Gauthier has found a home to match his talent. At the helm of Beau-Rivage Genève's fine dining institution since 2001, he is above all driven by passion. A passion for refined taste and excellence in his preparations. A passion for fine seasonal produce that he develops through his hands-on approach working with regional producers, supporting our local environment and ensuring exclusive access to exceptional produce for guests at Le Chat-Botté. And of course, a passion for cooking which he hones over and over, along with his insatiable curiosity and high standards, to obtain the perfect alchemy in each of his recipes and bring you the most exquisite emotions.

CULINARY PHILOSOPHY

AN EXPERIENCE AS UNIQUE AS IT IS EXTRAORDINARY

Cuisine that acts as an ambassador for flavour and local produce.

Dominique Gauthier works closely with selected producers who are passionate, pro-active and respectful of the seasons and their local environment. Mindful of serving food of the best possible quality, the chef strives to be an ambassador for a region and style of cooking in which nature is showcased at its finest, in its absolute essence, enhanced by expertly chosen and subtle flavour pairings.
